Determining

Importance

"What is the big message?"

Good readers do not memorize books. They make decisions on what is most important.

- What is the big message
- After reading I am thinking the main idea is about······
- What information do you need to take with you as you read?
- What are the supporting details that help develop the big idea?
- I predict that this is the major idea because ······
- The most important information is......
